

STATE OF NEW YORK: COMPARISON OF VOTING BOOTH STYLES

PakFlatt Franklin

Standalone Booths

"Rolling" Style

Price/Station	$597 including Lights and Totem. About $149.25/station	$600-$900 for four stations. $150 - $250/station (varies).	$660 or more for 4 stations. $165 or more/station.
Lights	Included in price at no extra charge	Available (extra charge)	No (possibly for extra charge)
Totem/Informational Signage	Included in price at no extra charge	No	No
Material:	Extruded Aluminum to automotive and aviation standards (legs and frame). Extruded twin wall polycarbonate (sides)	High Density Polyethylene (booth) and vinyl (screen). Anodized or mill finish aluminum	Steel (may rust or corrode)
Warranty	Will replace any defective items, no questions asked	Limited	Uncertain
Storage Requirements	Minimal -- four voting stations fold up into small footprint	Moderate -- units pack into suitcases	Problematic: Units can only be nested. Requires significant storage space
Dimensions for storage	38 1/2" x 25 1/4" x 9 1/2" for four units	24 1/2" x 22 1/2" x 5" for one unit	28" x 21" x 60" for one unit
Can Units Be Stacked	Yes	Yes	No
Delivery Ease	Simple, small footprint, many units will pack/stack in a limited space	Relatively simple, units will pack/stack	Very Difficult. Units can be nested but not stacked.
Setup	Simple, one-piece design	Moderate -- one piece booth section requires legs to be separately attached	Simple, one piece design
Weight	42 lbs for four stations. Approximately 10.5 lbs/ single station	64-72 lbs for four voting stations. 16-18 lbs/single station	192 lbs for four stations. 48 lbs/single station
Number of Components to Create 4 Voting Stations	One	20 (4 booths and 16 separate leg pieces)	Four
Casters/Wheels	Yes. Wheels on bottom for movement -- wheels do not touch the ground when booth is set up for voters	None	Yes. Wheels always in contact with the floor. Potential rolling/safety hazard if not locked
History of Product	Thousands of units in place internationally and within the United States.	Thousands of units in place within the United States	New, relatively untested product.
Color Scheme	Patriotic Red White and Blue	Black with silver aluminum legs (other options may be available)	Puritan Grey
ADA Compliance	Yes -- and universally designed so that all voters are voting at the same station. Supported by advocates.	Yes (with ADA Legs)	????